

Short Mountain Bible Camp

615-563-4168

smbchome@dtccom.net

Rules for Retreats

The board of directors has the following expectations for all persons using SMBC
Please review these rules with your group when you arrive

- Check in with the caretakers before settling into cabins.
- Check in with the caretakers before leaving the camp area.

- Christian conduct is expected at all times by children, teenagers, adults and visitors.
- All worship activities should be in accordance with the teaching of the Bible.
- No damaging camp property (fire extinguishers, beds, walls, bathrooms, picnic tables, tables, rocking chairs, windows, doors, mattresses, dispensers, trash containers, sporting equipment, etc.) Cost of damages will be deducted from the deposit and additional charges will be incurred if necessary.
- No camper is allowed out of the common area without an adult.
- No camper should enter a cave without an adult(25 and older), regardless of age of camper.
- No girls are allowed in the boy's cabins and no boys' are allowed in the girls cabins.
- Cabins available for retreats include - Magnolia Left and Right (26 beds on each side) Nurses / Cooks Cabin, and Office. Locked cabins are off limits.
- All clothing should be modest and in compliance with camp dress code.
- Cabin raids are not allowed
- OFF LIMITS - These areas are secured for your safety; camp insurance is not liable for injury incurred in a secured/locked or off limits area.
  - ❖ Do not go to the maintenance building, the horse barn, horses, or pool.
  - ❖ If a building or area is locked/secured do not enter, this is trespassing and punishable by law.
- Canoes are available but only with adult supervision (definition of an adult is 25 and older). Life jackets must be worn; they are located in the lake house. All life jackets and paddles must be returned to the lake house and canoes placed back in rack.
- Sporting equipment must be returned to proper container before leaving the camp.
- An adult must supervise all activities at the lake. The caretaker will send any person(s) back to camp if found at the lake without an adult (25 and older).
- No food or drinks are allowed beyond the gate leading to the athletic field.
- If a gate is closed, please close it after you pass through.
- Do not throw rocks or sand.
- Do not move beds or mattresses.
- Four wheelers are prohibited.
- No alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or illegal drugs.
- An adult (25 yrs or older) is responsible for checking all areas of the camp before leaving.
  - ❖ All lights and water must be turned off - please report any leaks to the caretaker -
  - ❖ Trash should be removed and placed in trash trailer
  - ❖ All areas used must be swept, mopped, etc.

Upon signing I agree to enforce the rules of SMBC during our retreat.

---

Signature

Position

Date

SMBC reserves the right to conduct a work group while retreats are in session
The privacy of all retreats will be fully respected of work groups